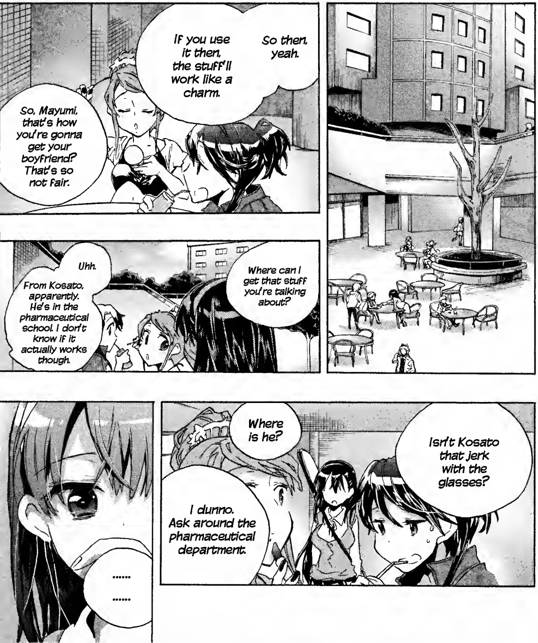
第1話



So then, yeah.
If you use it then, the stuff'll work like a charm.
So, Mayumi, that's how you're gonna get your boyfriend? That's so not fair.
Where can I get that stuff you're talking about?
Uhh.
From Kosato, apparently. He's in the pharmaceutical school. I don't know if it actually works though.
Isn't Kosato that jerk with the glasses?
Where is he?
I dunno. Ask around the pharmaceutical department.

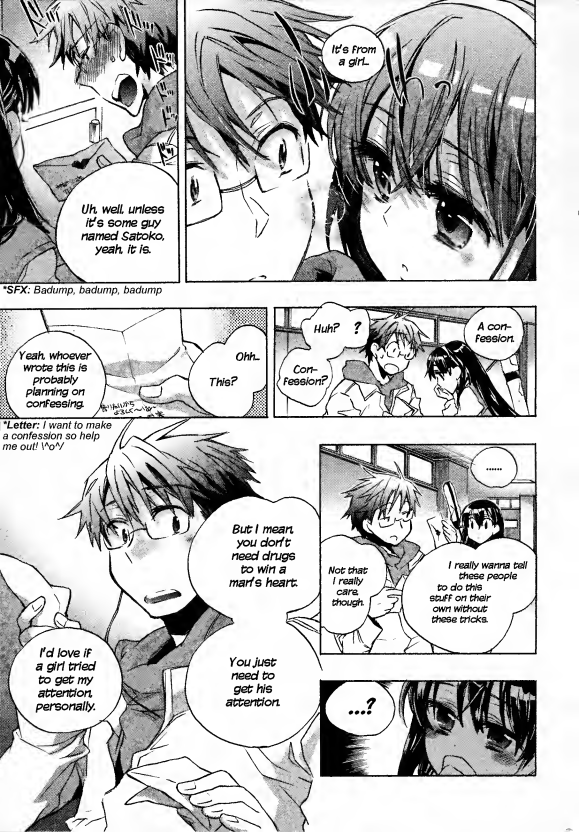
Does she realize I can see everything..?
Is she doing it on purpose? Should I look?
A letter..
in your shoe locker..
Huh?
What are you talking about?



It's from a girl...
Uh, well, unless it's some guy named Satoko, yeah, it is.
A confession.
Huh? ?
Confession?
Ohh... This?
Yeah, whoever wrote this is probably planning on confessing.
......
I really wanna tell these people to do this stuff on their own without these tricks.
Not that I really care, though.
But I mean, you don't need drugs to win a man's heart.
You just need to get his attention.
I'd love if a girl tried to get my attention, personally.

The main branch of the Kosato family.
Don't you remember your cousin Chidori?
MY COUSIN!?!
Uh, but you said your name was Takeno.
No, I said that's what people call me...
I meant Takeno as in the word for combat.
I don't know much about your family, actually.
Your father would though.
What are you doing here, Chidori?
Going to school?
You came so far. It's so good to see you!
Uncle went to great lengths for me to be here...

Are you living on your own?
Why don't you come stay with us?
We have an empty room and it's so close to the university.

Fine. Stay.
Do what you want.

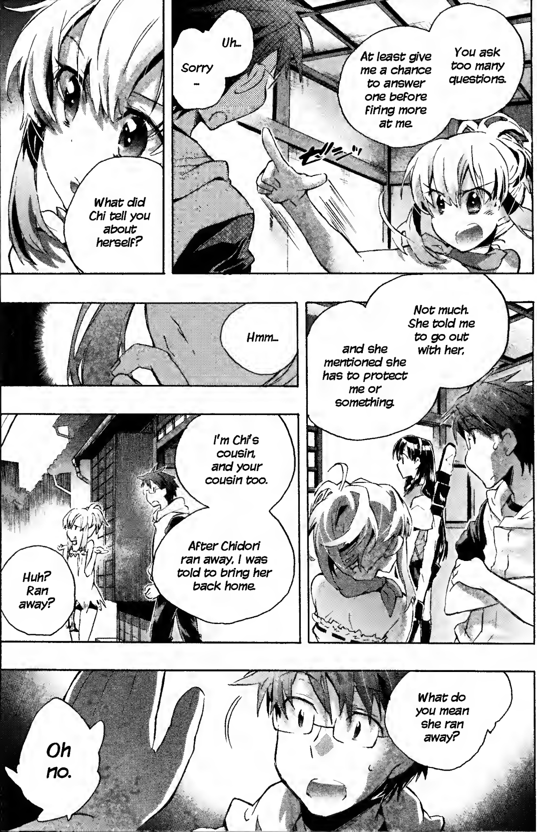
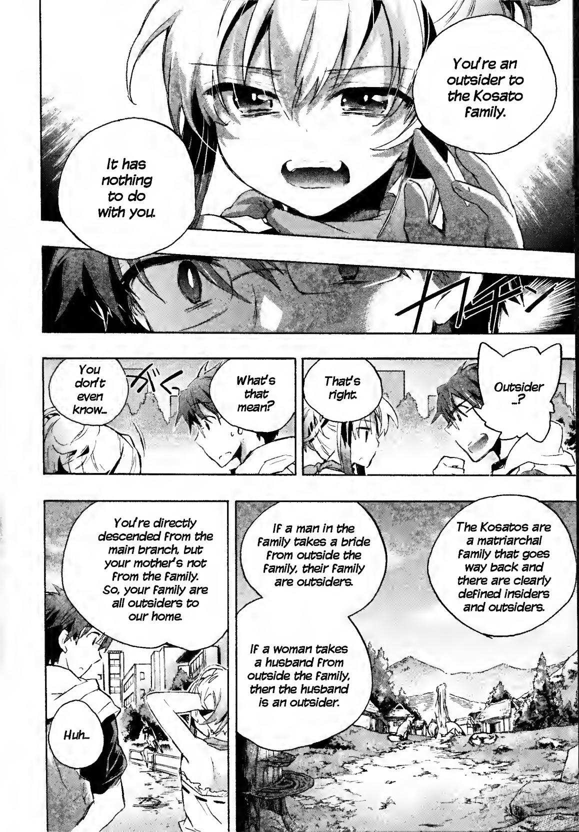
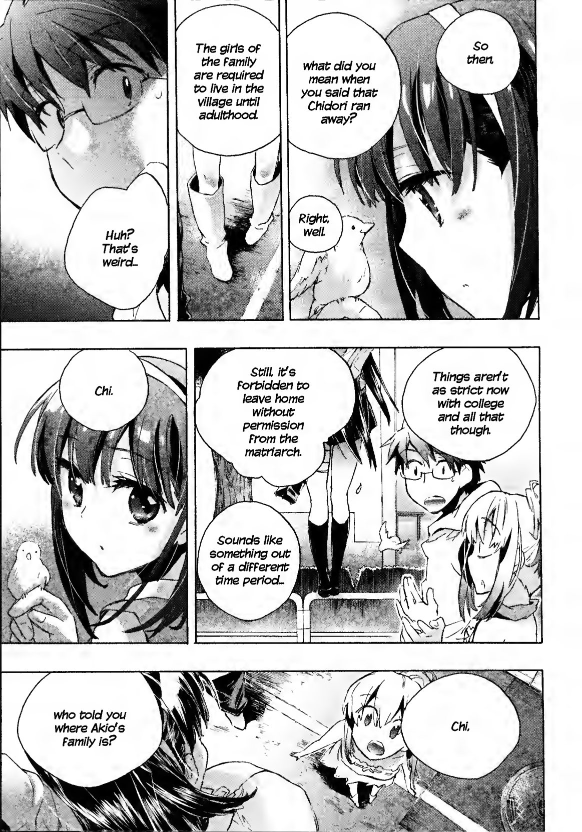
Wh.. What's that?
Money. Go buy tableware and anything else we need.
Why do I have to do it?
Do as your mother says.
So..
Uh.
I think Chidori said you were a prisoner or something yesterday.
Are you really my cousin?
Wow... you remembered that part.
Yeah.
What does Chidori have to do with you?
Why did you attack us?
What was with that outfit?



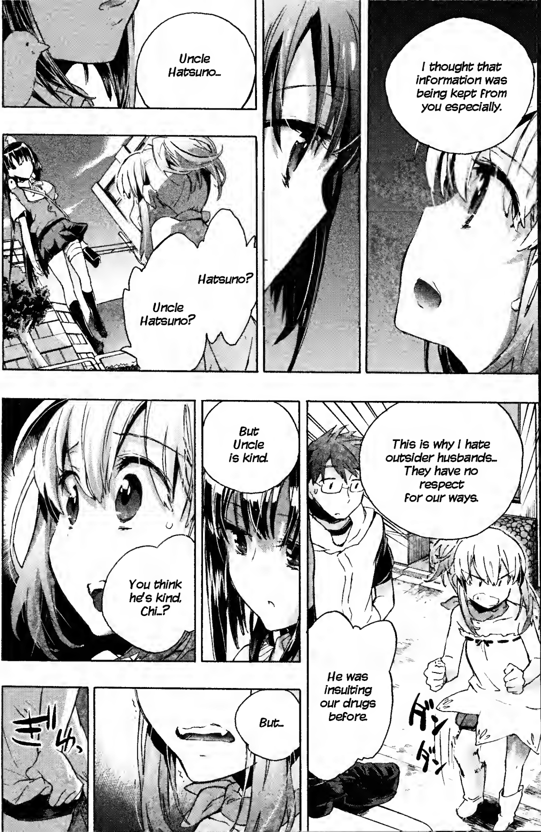
You ask too many questions.
At least give me a chance to answer one before firing more at me.
Uh..
Sorry ..
What did Chi tell you about herself?
Not much. She told me to go out with her,
and she mentioned she has to protect me or something.
Hmm..
I'm Chi's cousin, and your cousin too.
After Chidori ran away, I was told to bring her back home.
Huh? Ran away?
What do you mean she ran away?
Oh no.



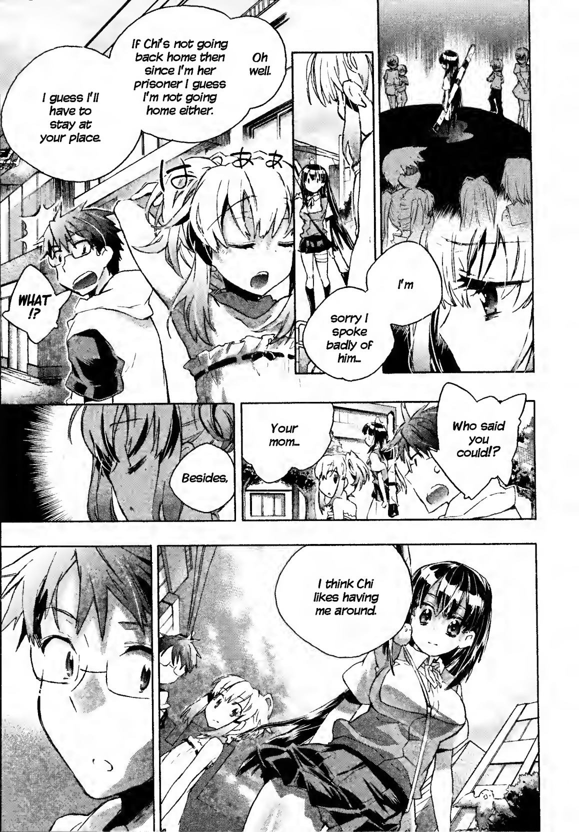
You're an outsider to the Kosato family.
It has nothing to do with you.
カチーン
Outsider ...?
That's right.
What's that mean?
がくっ
You don't even know...
The Kosatos are a matriarchal family that goes way back and there are clearly defined insiders and outsiders.
If a man in the family takes a bride from outside the family, their family are outsiders.
If a woman takes a husband from outside the family, then the husband is an outsider.
You're directly descended from the main branch, but your mother's not from the family. So, your family are all outsiders to our home.
Huh...



So then,
what did you mean when you said that Chidori ran away?
Right, well.
The girls of the family are required to live in the village until adulthood.
Huh? That's weird...
Things aren't as strict now with college and all that though.
Still, it's forbidden to leave home without permission from the matriarch.
Sounds like something out of a different time period...
Chi.
Chi,
who told you where Akio's family is?



I thought that information was being kept from you especially.
Uncle Hatsuno...
Hatsuno?
Uncle Hatsuno?
This is why I hate outsider husbands... They have no respect for our ways.
He was insulting our drugs before.
ダンダン
But Uncle is kind.
You think he's kind, Chi...?
But...
ぎゅっ



I'm sorry I spoke badly of him...
Oh well.
If Chi's not going back home then since I'm her prisoner I guess I'm not going home either.
I guess I'll have to stay at your place.
はあ〜あ

Who said you could!?
Your mom...
Besides,
I think Chi likes having me around.

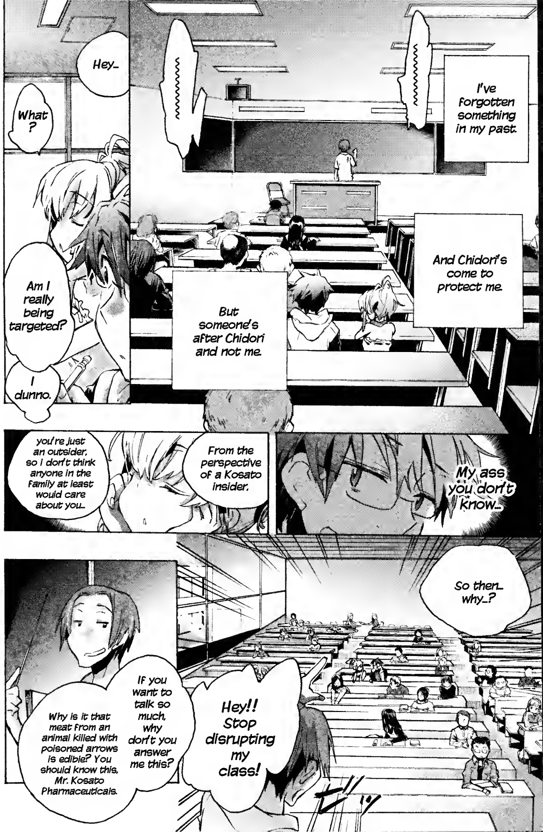
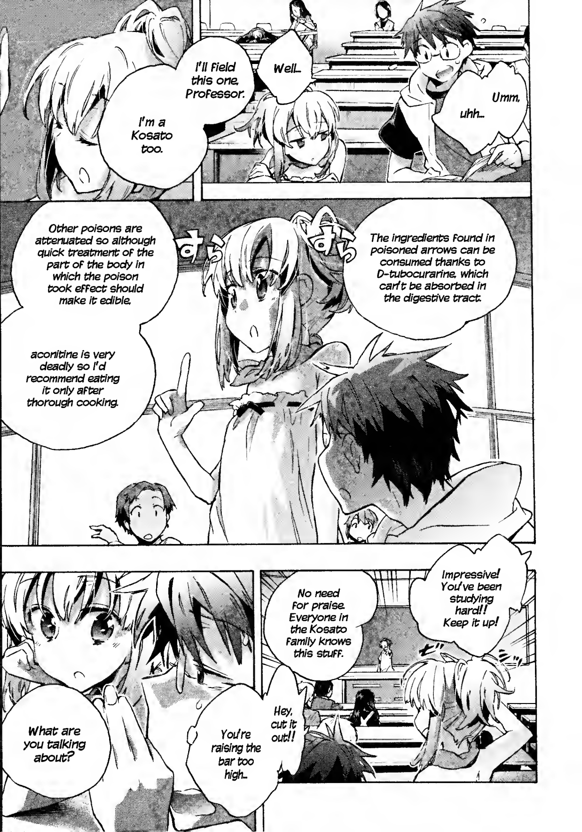
Uh, thanks.
So let me think...



I've forgotten something in my past.
And Chidori's come to protect me.
But someone's after Chidori and not me.
Hey...
What?
Am I really being targeted?
I dunno.
My ass you don't know...
From the perspective of a Kosato insider.
you're just an outsider, so I don't think anyone in the family at least would care about you...
So then... why...?
Hey!! Stop disrupting my class!
If you want to talk so much, why don't you answer me this?
Why is it that meat from an animal killed with poisoned arrows is edible? You should know this, Mr. Kosato Pharmaceuticals.



Umm, uhh...
Well...
I'll field this one, Professor.
I'm a Kosato too.
すら
すら
The ingredients found in poisoned arrows can be consumed thanks to D-tubocurarine, which can't be absorbed in the digestive tract.
Other poisons are attenuated so although quick treatment of the part of the body in which the poison took effect should make it edible, aconitine is very deadly so I'd recommend eating it only after thorough cooking.
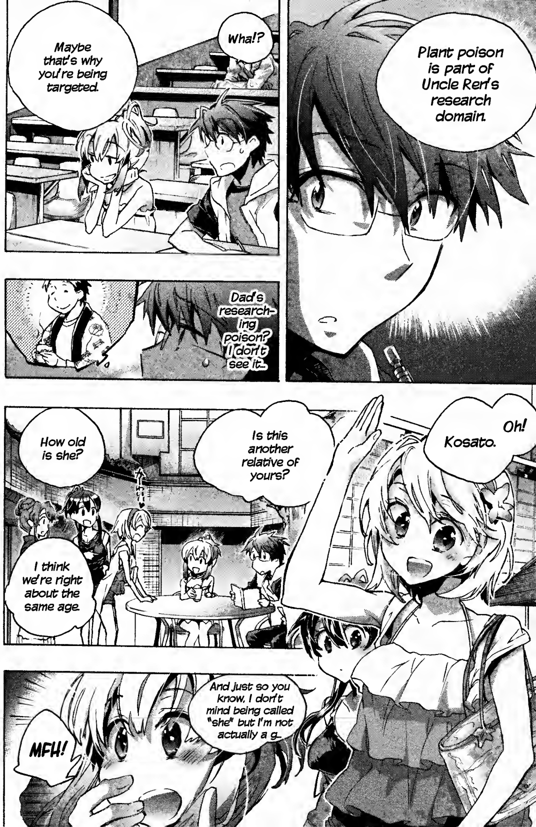
Impressive! You've been studying hard!! Keep it up!
ビ
ジ
No need for praise. Everyone in the Kosato Family knows this stuff.
Hey, cut it out!!
You're raising the bar too high...
What are you talking about?



Plant poison is part of Uncle Ren's research domain.
Maybe that's why you're being targeted.
Wha!?
Dad's researching poison? I don't see it...
Oh! Kosato.
Is this another relative of yours?
How old is she?
I think we're right about the same age.
And just so you know, I don't mind being called "she" but I'm not actually a g...

Are you insane!?
Fine. Where do you suggest I grow them then?

If you need space we have a warehouse you can use.

That's the first I've heard of it.

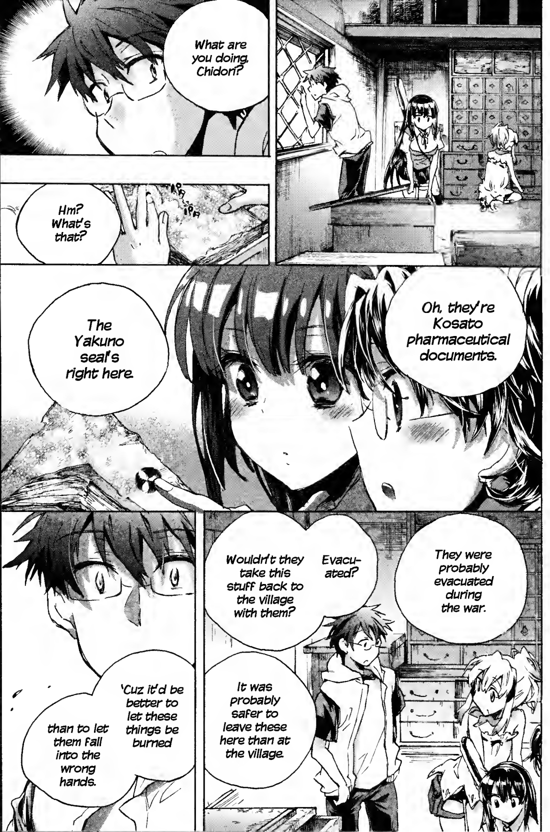
*SFX: Creeeeak...



What are you doing, Chidori?
Hm? What's that?
Oh, they're Kosato pharmaceutical documents.
The Yakuno seal's right here.
They were probably evacuated during the war.
Evacuated?
Wouldn't they take this stuff back to the village with them?
It was probably safer to leave these here than at the village.
'Cuz it'd be better to let these things be burned than to let them fall into the wrong hands.

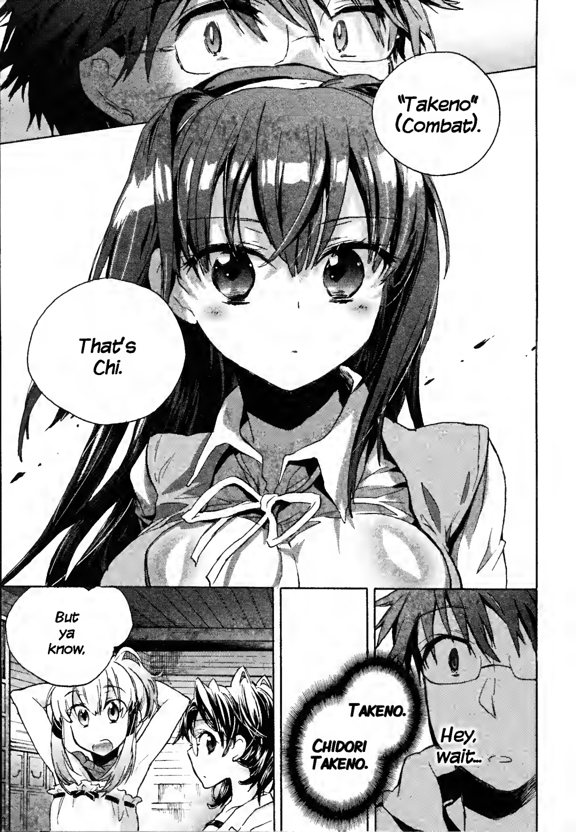
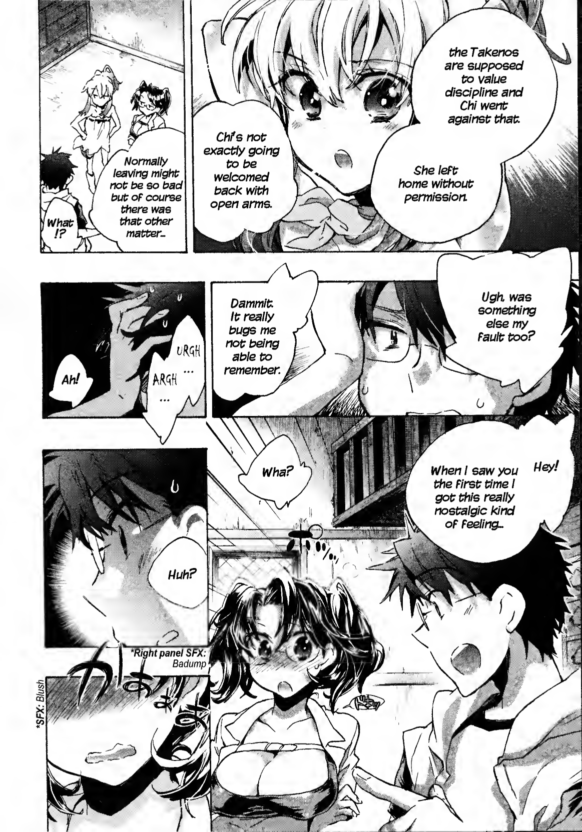
What exactly is the Kosato family trade?
I thought they were just a pharmaceuticals company, but it sounds like more than that.
Well, it definitely is a small pharmaceuticals company.
But they have a lot of family secret recipes and drugs only they can dispense.
They're kinda closed off to a lot of the outside world...
And that's it?
Only girls are involved in the production of the drugs.
The one in charge of administration and sales takes the name "Hatsuno" (First) and the person in charge of drug production takes the name "Yakuno" (Drug).
And the one in charge of protecting all the family secrets takes the name...



"Takeno" (Combat).
That's Chi.
Hey, wait...
TAKENO.
CHIDORI TAKENO.
But ya know,



the Takenos are supposed to value discipline and Chi went against that.
She left home without permission.
Chi's not exactly going to be welcomed back with open arms.
Normally leaving might not be so bad but of course there was that other matter...
What!?
Ugh, was something else my fault too?

□ところで、この作品の途中からデータで入稿するようになったんですが、何話目からかお気づきになったでしょうか？
主線を紙に描いてるのは変わらないんで多分あんまりわかんないんじゃないかな～と思います。
商業で本文をデータ入稿するのはほぼ十年ぶりだったので大変だったけどなかなか楽しかったです。

□では、また二巻でお会いしましょう。

2010/12 ジェームスほたて

And that was Itokoi Chidori volume 1. As I write this it's the beginning of December 2010 and there are some concerns that we won't be able to release this volume, but if you're reading this now then it means that it's reached stores.

Since this is a series I'm not going to talk too much about what the future of the story holds, but I hope you enjoy the rest of the story of Chidori's secret love.

At first I wasn't really sure Chidori would make for a good main girl for a series... but as it turns out I've gotten a lot of people telling me they really like her. (Momiji has a lot of fans too of course, haha!) Here at work people seem to like Akio's mom and Hatsuyuki a lot. I'm surrounded by maniacs, haha!

By the way, somewhere in the middle of this series I started submitting my manuscripts digitally. Can you tell what chapter I started doing that from? The lines don't really look any different so it's probably not too noticeable. It's been about 10 years since I submitted any manuscripts in a digital format so it was a little hard for me but it was kinda fun.

Well, I guess that's it. I'll see you again in volume 2.
